Education Fund
with the assistance of Victoria Television Group

All candidates on the May 9 Local Election ballot have been invited to speak if the race is contested.

Early voting begins on April 27, 8 a.m. to 5:p.m.
ends on May 5.

Voters Guides

We will have Voters Guides for the candidates on the ballot giving their response to our questions both City Council and the one school board race. There will also be a Voters Guide for the ten changes to the City Charter. They will be available at the Candidate Forum and then at the Election Office and the libraries, as well as the Chamber of Commerce. Copies can also be obtained by calling Helen Duckworth 575-7990.

NOTE

Kathy Hunt, our voters Service chair, has retired from Carbide substitute teaches and moved recently to 106 South Deleon.

ANNUAL MEETING

The 54th Annual Meeting of the Victoria League of Women Voters is currently scheduled for Thursday, May 21 at 6:00 p.m. Since we had difficulty getting a quorum at last year's meeting we will ask members to call if they cannot attend. We can then schedule at a time we will have a quorum to adopt a budget, plan programs and elect officers for 2009-2010. This will be the time when every member has an opportunity to decide what path our League will take in the coming year.

FINANCING

The League joins everyone else in the country in being under-financed. If you are not right now, a check to the LWV would be appreciated!
